

NAB petition 04-160 is an attempt to squelch a useful service provided by both XM and Sirius. If they achieve their goals, what will they want to inhibit next? Weather forecasts on the internet? Sports scores on a mobile phone? Traffic advice on my car's navigation computer?

NAB and established radio should contemplate the phrase "public interest, convenience and necessity".

A Sirius subscriber